

UNIVERSITY
OF MEDICINE
AND HEALTH SCIENCES

GP RETENTION SYMPOSIUM

The symposium will feature international keynote speakers including Professor Martin Marshall, Professor Louise Locock and Dr Carol Sinnott and will include input and discussions on GP retention in an Irish context. Join us to learn more about GP retention in Ireland and internationally and to discuss how research evidence can inform policy and practice responses to GP retention.

SEPTEMBER 24, 2024
9:20 - 15:30

THE CONVENTION CENTRE DUBLIN

09.20 - 09.45	Registration
09.45 - 10.00	Opening and Welcome Dr Niamh Humphries GP-Retention Project, RCSI; Mr Fintan Foy , Irish College of GPs
10.00 - 10.45	What Will General Practice Look Like In The Future? Prof Martin Marshall , Nuffield Trust
10:45 - 11.15	Coffee Break
11.15 - 11.55	Recruitment and retention of doctors in remote and rural areas: moving, and staying Prof Louise Locock , The University of Aberdeen
11.55 - 12.25	How GPs spend their time and the obstacles they face Dr Carol Sinnott , THIS institute
12:30 - 13.45	Lunch
13.45 - 14.45	Panel discussion on GP Retention in an Irish context Chair: Prof Andrew Murphy , University of Galway
14.45 - 15.10	Current challenges facing GPs in Ireland Dr Diarmuid Quinlan , Irish College of GPs
15.30	End

SCAN ME

REGISTER NOW